The “no-deploy Friday” policy

Cost Of Having Release Windows

A dark blue background with a central image of silhouettes of people celebrating on a hill. The silhouettes are in various poses, some with arms raised, suggesting a group of people celebrating a success. A teal square frame is centered over the image, partially overlapping the text.

Building The Confidence Of Deploying Anytime!

Learnings and Tips To Deploy Anytime Forever

The background of the slide is a teal-tinted image of the Golden Gate Bridge, showing its suspension towers and cables stretching across the water.
